Legal Consequences of the Construction of a Wall in the Occupied Palestinian Territory

Request for advisory opinion

IMPORTANT REMINDER TO THE MEDIA

The deadline for press accreditation expires tomorrow,
Thursday 1 July 2004, at midnight

THE HAGUE, 30 June 2004. The Information Department of the International Court of Justice (ICJ) reminds media representatives that the deadline for submitting their online requests for accreditation to attend the reading of the Advisory Opinion of the Court in the case concerning the Legal Consequences of the Construction of a Wall in the Occupied Palestinian Territory (request for advisory opinion) expires tomorrow, Thursday 1 July 2004 at midnight.

After that date, the on-line application form for media accreditation will be withdrawn from the home page of the Court's website (www.icj-cij.org), and it will no longer be possible to request accreditation to attend the public sitting in this case on 9 July 2004.

For further information, please read Press Releases 2004/23, 2004/24 and 2004/26 on the Court's website.

All the public documents in the case (original request, written statements, verbatim records of the February 2004 hearings) are available online on the Court's website (www.icj-cij.org). The reading of the Court's Advisory Opinion will be broadcast live on the Court's website and the full text of the Court's Advisory Opinion will be available online on completion of the reading on 9 July 2004. On the Court's home page, click on "Docket", and then on the hyperlink Legal Consequences of the Construction of a Wall in the Occupied Palestinian Territory (request for advisory opinion). Then consult the menu displayed on the left-hand side of the screen.
