The International Court of Justice,
composed as above,
after deliberation, having regard to Article 48 of the Statute of the Court and to Article 37 of the Rules of Court,

Makes the following Order:

Having regard to the Order of 9 September 1959, fixing 9 November 1959 as the time-limit for the filing of the Observations and Submissions of the Government of the United States of America with regard to the Preliminary Objections raised by the Government of the People's Republic of Bulgaria;

Whereas, by a letter of 30 September 1959, the Agent of the Government of the United States of America requested that this time-limit be extended to 9 February 1960;

Whereas, by a letter of 6 October 1959, the letter of the Agent of the Government of the United States of America was communicated to the Agent of the Government of the People's Republic of Bulgaria, who was asked to make known the views of that Government on the request of the Agent of the Government of the United States of America;

Whereas, by a telegram of 15 October 1959, the Agent of the Government of the People's Republic of Bulgaria stated that his Government had no objection to this request; decides to extend to 9 February 1960 the time-limit for the filing of the Observations and Submissions of the Government of the United States of America with regard to the Preliminary Objections raised by the Government of the People's Republic of Bulgaria.

THE COURT

Done in English and in French, the English text being authoritative, at the Peace Palace, The Hague, this twenty-third day of October, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine, in three copies, one of which will be placed in the archives of the Court and the others transmitted to the Government of the United States of America and to the Government of the People's Republic of Bulgaria, respectively.
