The International Court of Justice, composed as above,
after deliberation, having regard to Article 48 of the Statute of the Court and to Article 37 of the Rules of Court,

Makes the following Order:

Having regard to the Order of 3 September 1962, fixing 1 December 1962 as the time-limit within which the Government of the Federal Republic of Cameroun might present a written statement of its observations and submissions on the preliminary objection raised by the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland;

Whereas, by a letter dated 30 October 1962, the Agent of the Government of the Federal Republic of Cameroun requested that this time-limit be extended to 1 March 1963;

Whereas, by a letter dated 5 November 1962, the Agent of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland was informed of this request and asked to make known the views of his Government on it;

Whereas, by a letter dated 20 November 1962, the Agent of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland stated that his Government had no objection to the extension requested, extends to 1 March 1963 the time-limit within which the Government of the Federal Republic of Cameroun may present a written statement of its observations and submissions on the preliminary objection raised by the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

THE COURT
