 CASE CONCERNING
 THE NORTHERN CAMEROONS
 (CAMEROUN v. UNITED KINGDOM)

ORDER

The President of the International Court of Justice, having regard to Article 48 of the Statute of the Court and to Article 37 of the Rules of Court;

having regard to the Order of 27 November 1962, extending to 1 March 1963 the time-limit within which the Government of the Federal Republic of Cameroun may present a written statement of its observations and submissions on the preliminary objection raised by the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland;

Whereas, by a letter dated 27 December 1962, the Agent of the Government of the Federal Republic of Cameroun requested that this time-limit be extended to 1 July 1963;

Whereas, by a letter dated 2 January 1963, the Agent of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland was informed of this request and asked to make known the views of his Government on it;

Whereas, by a letter dated 8 January 1963, the Agent of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland stated that his Government had no objection to the extension requested, Extends to 1 July 1963 the time-limit within which the Government of the Federal Republic of Cameroun may present a written statement of its observations and submissions on the preliminary objection raised by the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

Done in French and in English, the French text being authoritative, at the Peace Palace, The Hague, this eleventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three, in three copies, one of which will be placed in the archives of the Court and the others transmitted to the Government of the Federal Republic of Cameroun and to the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, respectively.
